Wine Recommendations: Italian Red

Azienda Agricola Bressan

May 22, 2009

Importer Paolo Bernardi clued me in these wines he brings in from Venezia Guila. I had never had them. Highly yummy stuff. All better the next day.

Bressan

1998 Pignol

Violet. Jasmin. Peony. Intense, pignolo, but not much grip or tannin but intense acidity, and a cloud like finish.

2003 Schioppettino

Smells like opium perfume. Again intense, bloody, hotly spiced with an edge and a long finish. Quite the experience.
